

MPT1327

BT-190

EMERGENCY CALL REMOTE CONTROL CONSOLE

Universal and comprehensive solution for the wired operator or the dispatcher in applications such as police, fire services, industry and transport

- Clear graphic display with adjustable soft white backlight
- Alarm with a separate indication
- Subscriber or group management, including voice and data
- Quick access to operational groups with large function keys
- Built-in speaker and mic for hands-free operations
- Separate communication server is not required
- IP-connection to radio equipment from different manufacturers
- Customizable interface and language
- All relevant data on the current connection / status are displayed
- 24 hour / year-round operation
- Accessories: headset, external PTT or a foot switch, analog interface, external alarm button
- Text messages can be typed on the external keyboard

Technical data

- IP / LAN, ISDN/VoIP, MAP27, TETRA PEI with voice/data
- Built-in speaker and a mic for hands-free operations
- Individual, group and system-wide call, duplex or half duplex with PTT-button
- SDS-status, SDS-text
- USB for configuration and software updates
- 12 VDC, external power supply is included
- Analog output for recording sessions
- Connections of:
 - the second PTT / foot control
 - an external headset
 - an external speaker
 - external emergency button
 - an external keyboard